THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Lillian Kennedy company appeared last night in "The Widow," a pleasing comedy full of amusing situations. Miss Kennedy's interpretation of the character was all that could have been desired. Apart from her ability as an actress she has a good voice, is handsome and makes a fine stage appearance. Mr. Kelly, who is a general favorite and an actor of ability, furnished excellent support. The company will close a week's engagement to-night with "Clipp," a border drama in four acts, Mr. Norfolk Kirby, of this city, appearing in the cast as "Yuba Bill."

PIETHAN CELEBRATION.—As heretofore stated in the GAZETTE, the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of Virginia will open its annual session here on next Tuesday. The visitors will be welcomed by Mayor Downham, on behalf of the citizens, and by L. Marbury, esq., on the part of the order. A banquet will be tendered the grand lodge by the Alexandria knights. The local lodges have perfected all arrangements for receiving and entertaining the visitors.

ROBBERY.—The saloon of Mr. Sefer Bouse on upper King street, was robbed last night of several boxes of tobacco and cigars. An entrance was made by breaking open one of the back windows. Mr. Bouse, it is said, heard the men while they were in his house, but for prudent reasons remained up stairs. This morning Andrew Lomax, Jno. Brooks and Dan Ferguson, all colored, were arrested on suspicion of having committed the robbery and were locked up.

GOT HIS LICENSE.—A young man and a young woman attracted some attention on the streets this morning by their frequent requests to be directed to the Clerk's office. When they reached the office the young man gave his name as Henry Hyler, of Washington, and that of the young lady as Carrie Heller, of this city. They procured a license and shortly thereafter went to the residence of Rev. J. M. Nourse, where they were married.

PROPERTY SALE.—Mr. R. T. Lucas, auctioneer, sold to day, at public auction, for Messrs. Lunt, Corbett and Harlow, trustees, a tenement and lot of ground (heretofore advertised in the GAZETTE) situated on the west side of Henry street, between Gibson and Wilkes streets, fronting 22 feet one inch on Henry street, by 92 feet in depth, to Mrs. E. D. Barton, for the sum of $545 cash.

THE WEATHER.—This has been one of the most disagreeable days of the winter. A cold rain commenced falling early this morning, and soon the streets were covered with sleet, making walking both difficult and dangerous. The rain continued without cessation during the day, keeping all indoors who were not absolutely compelled to be out.

A NEW SOCIETY.—The young men of the Methodist Protestant Church have formed a "Society of Christian Endeavor." The following officers have been elected: President, H. M. Hantzman; Secretary, W. P. Cator; devotional committee, R. H. Hancock and W. H. Harrison.
